ABSTRACT

The subject of Juvenile Justice System Ordinance isn't a new idea yet in Pakistan. It was a very dubious law up until the time when the Parliament passed Juvenile Justice System Ordinance 2000. As per the reports of the UN advisory groups on the Juveniles, the Amnesty International along with some other NGOs and different domestic or organisations, infringement of Juvenile Rights are generally detailed in Pakistan. It is very intriguing to know and to take note of that the specialists have not entirely translated even the laws on Juvenile in Pakistan and that is the reason an exertion is made to seek and get together all the choice of summit courts in Pakistan in order to investigations that what amount of touchy this issue is? Since there is no mass mindfulness in Pakistan, in this manner, the Juvenile Rights have not been perceived by the overall population; be that as it may, with the progression of time, it would be a begging to be proven the wrong issue.
