Abstract

Financial institutions have always been the point of concern and no one can deny the significance of banking sector. There are two-opposite banking systems working parallel to each other; Conventional Banking and Islamic Banking. There has been lack of awareness regarding the Islamic Banking as many perceive it same as Conventional Banking. The project mainly focuses on the practices and products of Islamic Banks in comparison with Conventional Bank. This comparative analysis differentiates between the interest-based financing of Conventional Banking and interest-free financing of Islamic Banking.

Acknowledgment

All praise is due to Allah Almighty, The Most Beneficent and The Most Merciful. Whosoever Allah guide cannot be Misguided and whomsoever Allah misguides cannot be guided. I am very fortunate that Allah has guided and helped towards the completion of this project and grant enough intelligence, knowledge and wisdom.

I would like to express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Khalid Sohail for the continuous support for this project and for his motivation and immense knowledge. His guidance helped for the research, methodology and writing in this project. As without his supervision this piece of work could not have been shaped in its present form.

I would also like to thank my beloved family as the completion of this project could not have been accomplished without their support. They helped me in every way possible. I would appreciate the utmost existence of my Friends who have always backed me with their support in my every field of my life.

Dedication

I dedicate this piece of work to my beloved Mother and Family who always backed me with their support in every field of life and helped in every way possible to accomplish my academic career.
