ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises and acclamations are for Almighty ALLAH, the merciful, the benevolent, the only creator of the Universe Who bestowed mankind knowledge, wisdom and potential to unravel its secrets. After Almighty Allah, praises to Last messenger of Allah, Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him), who is the succorer of humanity, gem of mankind and the ruby of the universe.

First of all, I would like to express profound gratitude to my honorable supervisor, Dr. Qazi Abdul Subhan, for accepting me as a graduate student and giving me a wonderful opportunity to seek knowledge from him. I felt extremely fortunate to have him as my supervisor. Without his valuable suggestions, excellent guidance, exceptional efforts, remarkable insight and dynamic supervision, this project would not have been completed. The professional research skills that I learnt from him are invaluable for future endeavors. He always responded my queries and questions with great enthusiasm. His guidance and support have always been a source of encouragement for me throughout my stay at the Bahria University Islamabad (BUIC).

I express my heartiest gratitude and deep sense of honor to my affectionate, Mother Jameela Begum for their kind behavior and valuable support during my studies. Special pray for my father Muhammad Mahroof (Late) may Allah have mercy on him and grant him Jannat-ul-Firdaus (Ameen). Last but not the least; I convey my special thanks to brothers Muhammad Fazeel Ayaz, Muhammad Nabeel Ayaz and friend Abdul Staar and all those who guide and pray for my brilliant future. Without their support, encouragement, and prayers, it was impossible to achieve what I did till date.

DEDICATION

To my beloved father and mother

ABSTRACT

For economic segment, Microfinance banks are crucial, especially in emerging countries in which financial markets aren't very well evolved and powerful. Microfinance banking financial performance is critical meanwhile worthiness regarding sector stands strongly related with economy's worthiness, as a whole. Study has researched profitability factors regarding the Microfinance banks functioning in Pakistan, by specific emphasis on position towards the asset quality. That aspect became especially significant after the introduction of tighter banking regulatory standards. Study has involved micro level determinants of banks profitability. Over the duration 2015-2020, the research has used balanced panel data containing Six microfinance banks operating in Pakistan. Results of ROA indicates that Poor Asset Quality (PAQ), cost-to-income ratio (CIR), capital adequacy (CAR) and Liquidity ratio (LIQ) showed negative effects on financial performance. In ROE t-value and the significance value of the relevant variables indicates that Poor Asset Quality (PAQ), cost-to-income ratio (CIR), and capital adequacy (CAR) have a substantial negative effect on the financial performance. While, Liquidity ratio (LIQ), shows insignificant impact on net interest margin. In NIM Poor Asset Quality (PAQ), Liquidity ratio (LIQ), and capital adequacy (CAR) have a substantial negative effect on the financial performance. While, cost-to-income ratio (CIR), shows insignificant impact on net interest margin. Bank management, customers, investors as well as government can use the information for better decision.
