

NIMA drives strategic dialogue at Pakistan Logistics & Shipping Summit 2026

STAFF REPORTER

ISLAMABAD

The summit titled “From Crisis to Opportunity: Redefining Pakistan’s Role in Global Supply Chains”, brought together diplomats, senior government officials, policymakers, regulators, industry leaders, development partners, academia, and representatives from Pakistan’s logistics, shipping, ports, customs, trade, and financial sectors to deliberate on Pakistan’s evolving role in regional and global supply chains. The summit was organized by Smart Entrepreneur Society in coordination with Galaxefi, and ACMEEM.

The summit was inaugurated by R/Adm Shahid Ahmed SI(M), SBT (R), Chairman KPT. Distinguished participants included the R/Adm Muhammad Khalid HI(M), DG(Ops) PQA, Mr. Noor freight forwarders, financial institutions, and academia.

As the Knowledge

a regional trade and logistics hub. Cdre Raheel Masood (R), Senior Research Fellow, NIMA,

UI Haq Baloch, Chairman GPA, senior representatives from the Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Communications, Pakistan Customs, the Trade Development Authority of Pakistan, the Asian Development Bank, leading logistics companies, Partner, NIMA played an active role in the summit’s technical programme. R/Adm Javid Iqbal HI(M), President, NIMA, participated as a distinguished panelist, contributing to discussions on strengthening Pakistan’s position as moderated Session II, “Building the Foundations of Pakistan’s Trade Competitiveness,” facilitating dialogue on policy reforms, institutional coordination, and strategies to improve Pakistan’s trade and logistics ecosystem.