

RESEARCH PROFICIENCY PAPER

WOMEN'S PARTICIPATION IN PUBLIC SPHERE: IMPLICATIONS FOR POLITICAL EMPOWERMENT

By: Talha Saeed Satti

Enrollment No.: 01-155082-030

Degree Title: BSS (Development Studies)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION .....	3
1.1. Rationale of the study.....	4
1.2. Research questions.....	4-5
1.3. Definition of concepts.....	5
1.3.1. Public Sphere.....	5
1.3.2. Participation.....	6
1.3.3. Political Empowerment of Women.....	7
1.3.4. Grassroots level.....	7-8
1.4. Objectives of the research.....	8
1.5. Methodology.....	8
1.6. Significance of the study.....	9
1.7. Theoretical Framework.....	9
1.7.1. Habermas and Public Sphere.....	9-10
1.7.2. Fraser and Public Sphere.....	11
1.8. Review of Literature.....	11-12
1.8.1. Women and Public Sphere.....	12
1.8.2. Models of Public Sphere in Political Ideology.....	13-16
1.8.3. Women and Spaces in Public Sphere.....	17-19
1.8.4. Relationship between Participation and Public Sphere.....	20
1.8.5. Public Sphere and Political Empowerment of Women.....	20-21
CHAPTER 2. DATA COLLECTED .....	22-29
2.1. Application of Theory in Pakistani Perspective.....	29
2.1.1. Politics and Women; an asymmetry.....	29-31
2.1.2. Participation of Women in Politics of Public Sphere.....	31-33
2.1.3. Barriers Obstructing Women’s Involvement in Politics of Public Sphere...33-37

CHAPTER 3. DATA ANALYSIS .....	38
3.1. Role of Public Sphere in Political Participation of Women.....	38-39
3.2. Fraser’s Re-conceptualization of Public Sphere.....	39-40
3.3. Hurdles hindering Political Empowerment of Women at Grassroots Level.....	40-41
3.4. Experience of South Asian Countries including Pakistan.....	41
CHAPTER 4. CONCLUSION .....	42-44
4.1. Limitations of the Study.....	44
ANNEXURE .....	45-46
BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	46-48