We are very thankful to our supervisor Dr. Pervaiz Khan who guided us greatly in our research work. He pointed out and corrected our errors. Due to his efforts, we improved and our research work made it up to the required standard, he also sharpened our writing and research skills. He used to keep a check on our work and guided us through. His encouraging words made us more confident and motivated towards our research.

He recommended us journals, articles, books and relevant laws related to our project. He always collaborated with us and dedicated his precious time in helping out with the research project. He told us different tools of research which helped in our research.

We are also humbly thankful to our Parents who provided moral support and for believing in us.

ABSTRACT

This thesis explains that China Pakistan Economic Corridor is substantially significant for Pakistan's economy. However, its potential threat to the existence of Federation of Pakistan can not be ignored. To address this issues, the government needs to take steps, in particularly fair distribution of resources among the provinces in relation to CPEC.
