ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Without the grace and help of ALLAH, this research project would have never completed. We would like to extend earnest gratitude and honour to our parents especially late father of Muhammad Rehan, Liaqat Ali Shahid who aspired me to graduate with a law degree and Late mother of Arsalan Tanveer who was a great woman. Most importantly, we are also thankful to our supervisor Ma'am Saira Dar who has generously helped in research work with her insightful suggestion of a new topic through which we have learned a lot. In particular, we would like to appreciate the efforts of whole law faculty and Law department for their indebted efforts throughout five years in building our career with full commitment.

ABSTRACT

This research project is focused on detail study of transnational corporations which are accountable for the abuses of set of laws dealing with corporate laws, policies and mechanism internationally. This paper addresses the questions of law making and implementation in corporate law and their tortious liability arises out of their activities beyond the limits. This thesis shall aim to pursue the different corporate crimes and their detrimental effects on community. The study is concentrated on the linkage between corporate social responsibility and transnational companies' violations. Furthermore, with the international discussion it also analyzes the domestic laws reactions to these violations of human rights. The research project also recommends the new proposals in the area.
